Class Songs and Yells

("Gone - 'Nows' the Time to Fall In Line")

The classes get easier
The teachers get sweeter
Just when you are leaving school.
The seniors start moanin'
Cause soon we'll be noamin'
To look for something else to do.
So we're here to give a helpful warning
Study hard so you can get your learning,
and help Handley Hi School
To be the best school
Of any other in the Land!

When we are graduates
We'll get our certificates
Sometime in the month of June
Just try hard to get one
Without lots of studyin'
You'll find that's not the way to do.
Sports will help you in this situation
Purple and white will reign forever
In old Handley High School
With Menden for our rule
We'll find we are the winning band.

"Fishing Hell"
(June - School Days)

Fishing Hell, Fishing well,
Good old jolly wishing well.
He look to the future
and now we know,
What to expect of the seed we sow.

You made so[^] happy others sad
But we can't be worried with what is bad
So now we will leave you for others to find
And mebbe we'll see you again sometime.

Class Songs and Yells

Handley Forever
(June - "Cuban Love Song")

Our High School
For you our hearts are praying
While every Seniors saying
Handley Forever!

Without you
Our joy of youth would differ
And back to you we'd never Say Handley forever!

Such memories would never fill our hearts
No happiness we'd feel when far apart
He's saying
Handley
Has taught the worth of living
To be thankful, ever giving
Oh, Handley, We Love you!

I won't put any remarks in the last column; I'll just save all of mine to go in this space. Doesn't it seem great to be finishing high school? I know it does.

Edna, I have never really known you until this year. You know what I mean, really been around you enough to know you, but the more I know you the better I like you. I think you are a very sweet girl. I am glad I came back up here this year. Maybe I wouldn't have really known you if I hadn't. Haven't we had fun in the woods, even tho' both of us did pull some "out-landish capers"? I wish you just lots of success and happiness.

Edna, dear, I am happy to have the privilege of writing in your lovely Graduation book, but still that does not bring the happiness that our friendship has brought to me. Your high school days have come and almost gone and in my opinion you have been a very lovable student of the teachers and a jewel to all your friends. I think I shall never forget your sweet smiling face. Honey, what I could write on this page could not express the feelings in my heart for you but the main thing is I love you and wish you all the joy, happiness and success that God has to offer his children. 2nd Tim. 2:15. The Faculty

Dear Edna -

You have contributed much to our school and, by your loyal attitude, you have made it possible for the school to help you a great deal. I hate to see you go - and yet I would not have you stay, for your going means that you are making progress. I congratulate you upon the record you have made in school and upon the wholesome influence you have shed upon our school life. You have learned that character and personality are two qualities, the great value of which can not be overestimated in the struggle for success, and that they should be cultivated with the utmost assurance of their importance. May success and happiness be yours. We shall ever be interested in your progress; and all the time we shall be "pulling for you" and believing in you. May the whose perfect character has brightened all the ages guide you and keep you.

Sincerely - Edward Menden

Dear Edna,

Mr. Murden seems to have used all the complimentary adjectives in the English Language on the opposite side of this page so what is there left for me to say. It has been a pleasure and a delight to sponsor a senior class with such pupils as you in it. I shall hold in my memory for a long time your quiet unassuming loyal and trustworthy ways. You are the type that is hard to forget.

I am looking forward to going over to Dunton next winter to see you. Success to you, always.

Most Sincerely yours,

Dear Edna,

As I waked early this morning my attention was called first to a little bird singing just outside my window in a magnolia tree. As I listened it seemed that the world was all in tune and I thought how beautiful life is to those who live right. My eyes wandered to your memory book and I said, Her life is beautiful for she is all that makes it so.

Much you have much success in life.

I have not really known you until year, but you have proved yourself a very loyal and true friend.

I have not had the pleasure of having you in my study hall this year, but it was a great pleasure to have you last year. If all the students were as loyal, quiet, and studious as you, I would never mind keeping a study hall.

Edna your winning personality has won many friends and as you go on through life I know you will have many more friends. Wishing you happiness and success through life.

Class Prophecies

Class Day -

April 29, 1932 at 10:20 A.M. The Senior Class assembled to the auditorium for Class Day exercises. A program was given and after that we all went to Gough's Cafeteria in Fort Worth and enjoyed a wonderful lunch.

After lunch we went to the Palace Theatre and saw Helen Hayes in

After the show we all hurried home and prepared to go to Lake Worth where we spent the rest of the afternoon and night. I'll never forget what a wonderful time we all had. The night we stayed at Swift's Camp.

Nothing could have been better for we had plenty to eat & plenty to do.

Class Days -

Saturday's program consisted of a sunrise breakfast on Lake North, and an evening party at the home of Mr. Munden.

Sunday Morning we went in a body to the services of the First Baptist Church of Handy.

An afternoon tea at the home of Mary Louise Limsted senior week end activities & we were all ready to report to classes the next Monday morning.

"Our Crew"

The good old ship of '28
Bearing a crew of doubtful fate,
With crowded sail
And flying sail,
Moored at Handley High.

Above this ship with all on board
The stately gull and sea-birds soared.
They wondered why
'Neath any sky
None such had ever been.

The crew came bounding into port,
They manned the town, they manned
the fort
With ardor bold
And ease untold
They sailed and reigned supreme.

Inlanders bold, when they took hold,
Should do or die 'twas told.
And in this sale
They won their goal
With many a song and sigh.

'Twas not smooth sailing, all in all,
Sometimes for help someone would call.
'Twas difficult,
But the result
Did well repay the labor.

Each day they labored, hand and foot;
No turning back. The die was cast.
The weather rough
Has a rebuff
The crew could not deny.

And then, with characteristic mien
And spirit - present tho' unseen.
They set to work
No task to shrink
And soon their work laid by.

By day invading every portal
Learning, and at night each mortal
Going to rest
Had passed the test
And profited thereby.

Just as Apollo rears his head
Amid the glowing pink and red
This band arose
From their repose
Their mirth and worth to prove.

Their ship of dreams at anchor swung
Each morn' and eve the toll was rung.
Duty on land
This jolly band
Was glad indeed to serve.

They've plunged and plodded on and on
Until at length, the race was won
And now, at last
The world so vast
They'll grapple with a win.

This class of 1932
Has come, has seen, and conquered too.
Doubtless they Set out in May
To find new lands to conquer.
